

Responsibilities of Expert of Installation

- Supervising technical work, studies, planning generally in the field of design, expansion of renovation of construction projects.
- Checking out and preparing plans related to the establishment or expansion of facilities, air conditioning, central heating.
- Forecasting and estimating spare parts required for heating and cooling devices.
- Preparing installation plans based on rules and regulations for construction, repair and supervising its full implementation.
- Supervising the implementation of construction projects that are implemented by consulting engineers and contractors, matching operations with approved plans and approving the submitted status report
- Performing technical calculations of projects based on relevant specifications, criteria.
- Checking out and suggesting about the priority of construction projects.
- Supervising repair, service, maintenance and operation of air conditioning and central heating water supply - gas supply facilities.
- Requesting to purchase the required equipment and supervising its preparation and installation, inspecting and controlling.
- Supervising the work of facility technicians.
- Providing the necessary reports according to the order of the superior authority.
- Preserving and protecting treasury property.
- Carrying out other relevant affairs according to the order of the superior authority.