Documents for Issuing or Renewing the Manufacturing License

- Written request from the Managing Director (typed)
- Completing the three-page form The Application for Issuance or Renewal of the Manufacturing License by the technical manager (typed, completed and signed by the technical manager) along with the CD containing the completed three-page form file.
- Image of Health Exploitation License and technical manager of all shifts
- Label design and packaging cover
- Original notarized letter of commitment to comply with the items in the label design and the requirements of the labeling code (typed)
- Image of Trademark Registration Certificate or Permission to Use the Trademark issued by the State Property and Deeds Registration Organization, which is equal to original (by the competent authorities)
- The original receipt of 2820000 Rials for food, beverage, cosmetic products (the text of the "Manufacturing License of the company .........." should be written in receipt and a copy.) to the account number 4001035203015489, which must be paid exclusively through the poses installed in the Deputy of Food and Drug or the covered Health and Treatment networks, along with 2 copies.
- The amount of the receipt for the extension of the Manufacturing License is 840,000 Rials to the mentioned account.
- Previous original Manufacturing License (in case of extension or modification)
- Image of the contract with the partner laboratory, if you do not have the necessary equipment for the requested product (if needed)
- Settlement of test costs
- Images of Health Licenses for raw materials and utensils
- Image of the latest changes in the official newspaper of the institute
- Providing the results of the partner laboratory test according to the latest standard for tests that the institute does not have the ability to perform.
- GTIN code (from Iran Numbering and Services Center)

Note: "The required forms are on the website of Semnan University of Medical Sciences (www.semums.ac.ir )."